

Agricultural Consultation and Training Center

(Administrative level of directorate)

Tasks:

- 1) Providing advisory services in the agricultural specializations that are available in the Center.
- 2) Developing training programs based on scientific developments in the field of agricultural research.
- 3) Cooperating with training centers specialized in some fields and providing opportunities for these centers to provide their distinguished services under the umbrella of the Agricultural Consultation and Training Center in the Center.
- 4) Providing tailor-made training programs based on request of the institutions and partners.
- 5) Building a database of the technologies that are developed or modified in the Center.
- 6) Formulation of the technology packages in the form of programs and activities.
- 7) Building a database of the pioneer farmers.
- 8) Implementing capacity building activities for the entrepreneurial farmers.
- 9) Recommending mechanisms for delivering technologies to farmers.
- 10) The Consultation Center is entrusted with the tasks of technical consultations, agricultural training, and building capacities of the pioneer farmers.
- 11) Preparing the annual plan for the implementation of the work entrusted to the directorate and following up its execution.